

DAVID JOHN SCHAKEL
Lecturer
Department of Health & Kinesiology
Texas A&M University
College Station, Texas 77843-4243
(979) 845-5204

PROFESSIONAL INTERESTS

- Teaching Bowling
- Teaching and Coaching Volleyball
- Teaching Golf

EDUCATION

B.S.	Ball State University Kinesiology and Business Administration	1974
M.S.	Ball State University Kinesiology	1978

EXPERIENCE

1977-1979	Head Coach, Women's Intercollegiate Volleyball Team, Texas A&M University
1979-1985	Head Coach, Men's Extramural Club Volleyball Team, Texas A&M University
1978-present	Assistant Instructional Professor, Department of Health and Kinesiology, Texas A&M University

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Bowled a Perfect "300 Game" July 16, 2001, Sanctioned by the United States Bowling Congress
- Won the High League Series Award with the Highest Three Game Total of 795 on April 16, 2001 (265 average)
- Passed the Player Ability Test for the Professional Golfers Association, Pebble Creek Country Club, July 17, 2000
- Won Gold Metal at US Open Volleyball National Championships, ages 40+, 1996
- Selected Second Team All-American, US Open Volleyball National Championships, Ages 40+, 1996
- Won Silver Metal at US Open Volleyball National Championships, ages 40+, 1994
- Selected Second Team All-American, US Open Volleyball National Championships, Ages 40+, 1994
- Won Bronze Metal at US Open Volleyball National Championships, ages 35+, 1994
- Selected 1st Team All-American, US Open Volleyball National Championships, Ages 35+, 1994,
- Won Bronze Metal at US Open Volleyball National Championships, ages 40+, 1992

- Selected 1st Team All-American, US Open Volleyball National Championships, Ages 40+, 1992
- Won Gold Metal at US Open Volleyball National Championships, Open-Bronze Division, 1991
- Selected 1st Team All-American, US Open National Championships, Open-Bronze Division, 1991
- Won Gold Metal at Lone Star Regional Volleyball Championships 12 times (1981-1995)
- Inducted into the Ball State University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1984
- Selected Most Valuable Player, Lone Star Regional Championships, 1981
- As the Head Coach, Texas A&M Women's Volleyball Team Twice Finished in the Top Ten at the A.I.A.W. National Championships, 1977 at B.Y.U. & 1978 at the University of Alabama
- Texas A&M University Women's Volleyball Team Won the Gold Medal at the A.I.A.W. Regional Championships at the University of Arlington in 1978 (Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and Arkansas)
- 1978 Win-Loss Record 50-15
- 1977 Win-Loss Record 46-20
- Played Professional Volleyball, International Volleyball Association, 1975-1979
- Won Spiking Title, Best Average (485), International Volleyball Association, 1975
- Won Gold Metal, AAU National Volleyball Championships, Open Division, 1974
- Won Gold Metal, US Open Volleyball National Championships, Open Division, 1975
- Competed in World Volleyball Championships, Mexico, 1974
- Starting Member of United States Contingent, World University Games, Moscow, 1973
- Selected 1st Team All-American, NCAA Final Four, Division 1 Championships, 1973
- Competed in 3 NCAA Final Four Division 1 National Championships, 1971-1973
- Selected Most Valuable Player, Midwest Intercollegiate Volleyball Association, 1973

PUBLICATIONS

Schakel, David. Volleyball, Boston, American Press, 1980

Schakel, David. Volleyball Inside Out, Boston, American Press, 1996

Schakel, David. Volleyball Inside Out, Boston, American Press, 1997 Second Edition

Schakel, David. Volleyball Inside Out, Boston, American Press, 1999 Third Edition